

My Personal Bank

Checklist of my Personal Bank Account tick
I cave in to peer pressure easily, e.g. if they make fun of my hijab I avoid wearing it in their presence
I am people-conscious –I feel ashamed in greeting others esp. friends with salam
I would never eat from the same plate of my maid's.
Beggars really tick me off. I shoo them away with glaring eyes and a curse.
I so hate it when a cousin steals all the attention with her elegant dressing and exuberance. She is so fake!

Deposits start with a pure heart and a feeling of shame before Allah. This sense only comes when you are humble before Him.
Write down about your first deposit and how you achieved it through the above 3 stages.

[illegible]

I alone am responsible for my deposits and withdrawals. Allah will decide my fate based on my balance.

Remember, you don't have to climb a mountain to make a deposit, there are a million easier ways
